

Building Peace by Creating Peacemakers

Museum houses four exhibit areas. Peace for Me, Peace for Us, Peace for Everyone, & Peace for the Planet.

Activities are fun, creative, and hands-on.

Peace Pavilion is a non-profit, 501c3 organization that is dedicated to helping kids learn peaceful ways through using constructive approaches to conflict, handling emotions, understanding diversity, and care of the environment.

The Peace Pavilion is opened for pre-scheduled group tours Tuesday and Wednesday. Open admission is 10 a.m.- 4p.m., Thursday-Saturday.

Fees are
Pre-scheduled tours - $4 per person
Open Admission - $7 for 3 years & above

Peace Pavilion
607 W. Lexington St.
Independence, MO 64050

www.thepeacepavilion.org
www.facebook.com/ThePeacePavilion
www.facebook.com/PeacePathways

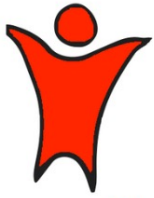

816-912-1275

PEACE PAVILION

INTERACTIVE KIDS MUSEUM

Fun, hands on activities in dozens of exhibits.

Peace for Me

Peace for Us

Peace for Everyone

Peace for the Planet

Activities teach peaceful choices, conflict resolution, understanding diversity, environmental responsibility, and more.

