

The Peace Pavilion is a unique interactive children's museum designed to teach concepts of peace through creative, fun, developmentally appropriate learning activities. Every element in the museum is designed to empower children to incorporate peacemaking skills into their everyday lives.

Get Involved

Volunteer

Support peace by serving as a volunteer docent. You will interact with visitors in the mission of the Pavilion of engaging the pursuit of peace by promoting peaceful learning, living, and action. Peace education and child protection training is provided.

Donate

The Peace Pavilion is a nonprofit 501(c)3 organization. Donations are tax deductible. Donate online by visiting our website or mail us a check.

Plan a Visit

The Peace Pavilion has open admission on Wednesdays and Fridays from 9:00 am to 4:00 pm. Call 816-521-3033 or visit our website www.thepeacepavilion.org for current hours of operation. There is no admission fee, but donations are welcome.

Schedule a Group Tour OR Family Visit

Group Tours are normally scheduled on Tuesday and Thursday. Some tour time-slots may also be available on Monday and Saturday.

PEACE PAVILION

1001 West Walnut
Independence, MO 64050-3562

Mailing Address:
P.O. Box 242
Independence, MO 64050
www.thepeacepavilion.org
1-816-521-3033
info@thepeacepavilion.org

PEACE PAVILION

Building Peace by Creating Peacemakers

FOR EVERY CHILD

DO
TOUCH
EXHIBITS

HAVE FUN &
EXPLORE

Visitors to the Pavilion will engage with hands-on exhibits to explore four concepts of peace.

The museum houses more than 25 interactive exhibits that engage visitors in learning a variety of life skills, such as dealing with strong emotions, conflict resolution, understanding diversity, and environmental sustainability.

Each year thousands of children and families come to experience this innovative hands-on environment. Schools, daycares, preschools, scouting programs, church and community groups, children and adults with disabilities, and families enjoy exploring the unique learning opportunities of the Pavilion.

The Peace Pavilion is a nonprofit 501(c)3 organization. Admission is free, but a donation per person is greatly appreciated.

Donations are tax deductible.

Peace for Me

promotes social-emotional learning, self-care, and peaceful choices.

Exhibits include:

- Masking How I Feel
- Emotion Commotion
- Dealing with Feelings
- Choose My Plate
- Make Peace a Habit
- Peace of Poetry
- Peacemakers Room

Peace for Us

explores interpersonal peacemaking skills emphasizing cooperation, communication, and conflict resolution.

Exhibits include:

- Puppet Theater
- Block Talk
- Humano Harambe
- Stand up to Bullying
- Harmony Hopping
- Choosing Paths of Peace

Peace for Everyone

demonstrates what all people need to survive and thrive and upholds understanding of diversity.

Exhibits include:

- Philippine Village
- We All Share the Same World
- Languages of Peace
- Reading Loft
- Explore the World

Peace for the Planet

encourages environmental responsibility and sustainability.

Exhibits include:

- Jane Goodall's Roots and Shoots
- Rainforest Puppet Role-play
- Peaceful Planet Puzzles
- Reduce, Reuse, Recycle
- Recycled Art
- Leave Your Mark on the World

